

Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory

The Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and its Online Directory are provided by the Academy through its Department of Institutional Advancement and are designed to facilitate communication among alumni for personal or Academy-related purposes only.

I. Privacy and Security

The Academy has not, does not and will never sell alumni information to anyone. All alumni information is strictly guarded for use by individual alumni and the school for personal and Academy-related purposes only.

The Academy has taken all reasonable precautions to secure the personal information available through the online community. The Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory is password protected to allow access by registered individual alumni and Academy employees only. Although this precaution should effectively protect any personal information available through the Directory from abuse or outside interference, a certain degree of privacy risk is faced any time information is shared over the Internet. Therefore, through the Online Directory feature of the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community, you have the ability to hide your information from being viewed by other registered users.

II. Policy and Guidelines for Proper Use

To safeguard the operation of the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory, the Academy has adopted the following community standards to govern conduct.

Interactions within the alumni community should reflect the values of the Academy and respect for the personhood and dignity of all members. Behavior which harms or threatens harm to others or that is abusive, offensive, intimidating, or hostile will not be tolerated. This includes, but is not limited to behavior manifested through words, images, and actions.

Phillips Exeter Academy is committed to enforcing these community standards and reserves the right to deny access to the Alumni Community and Online Directory to anyone not in compliance with these standards, at any time and without advance notice.

In addition to the Academy's community standards, users of the Phillips Exeter Alumni Community and Online Directory must abide by the following specific rules and regulations:

- A. Unauthorized copying, reproduction, republishing, uploading, downloading, posting, transmitting or duplicating any of the material is prohibited. You may download or copy any downloadable materials displayed on the Alumni Community and Online Directory for home, noncommercial and personal use only; provided, however, that you maintain all copyright, trademark and other notices contained in such material and you agree to abide by all additional copyright notices or restrictions contained in any material accessed through the Phillips Exeter Alumni Community and Online Directory.
- B. Use of information or communications available through the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory for any commercial, public or political purposes is strictly prohibited.

Prohibited activities include, but are not limited to, solicitations related to any political campaign, solicitations for commercial services, cold calling of any kind or mass-mailings for commercial purposes. Information available through the Alumni Community and Online Directory may be used for specific personal and Academy-related purposes only.

The Academy is not responsible for screening communications in advance, and the Academy will not actively monitor the use of the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory. For this reason, it is essential that the alumni users of the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory report any abuses or misuse to the alumni office via email at alumni@exeter.edu. All reports will be reviewed and reported to the proper PEA personnel. If a user's participation in the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory creates a liability for the Academy or the user has violated the community standards set forth herein, Phillips Exeter Academy reserves the right, to take actions against the user. These actions may include denying a user further access to the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory if such user violates these policies or any applicable laws, regulations, or community standards.

III. Liability and Indemnity

The reliability of the information available through the Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni Community and Online Directory is largely dependent upon the actions of community registrants. The Academy can make no representations about the accuracy, reliability, completeness, or timeliness of this information.

The Academy does not warrant that the Phillips Exeter Academy web site will operate error-free or that the site and its server are free of computer viruses or other harmful material. To the fullest extent permitted by the law, the Academy disclaims all warranties, including the warranties of merchantability, non-infringement, and fitness for particular purpose. In no event shall the Academy be liable for any damages whatsoever, including, without limitation, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages, resulting from the use of or inability to use information or materials available on the Phillips Exeter Academy web site.

By using the Phillips Exeter Academy web site, you agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Academy and its agents from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, costs, and expenses that may arise from your use of the Phillips Exeter Academy web site or your breach of these policies. The Academy will provide notice to you of any such action or claim, and reserves the right to participate, at our expense, in the investigation, settlement, and defense of any such action or claim.

Please note that the Academy may revise these policies, and your continued use of the site constitutes your agreement to comply with such modifications. You should review the policies periodically to ensure that you are familiar with them.
